Wish you were here

Rebellious Lynda has been swearing constantly from an early age. The cover image shows 2 men shaking hands, with one of them on fire. In all of the images, there is something missing, like the diver who does not make a splash.

Wish You Were Here (1987)

When Alice's sister Steph returns not long after, a nasty secret is revealed about the night her boyfriend went missing. Past good experiences and times can be changed for some new greater ones.

Wish You Were Here (2012)

The album was re-released and remixed in 2011 in multiple editions as part of the reissue campaign.

Wish You Were Here (2012)

The progressive side of a great band like Pink Floyd can be sometime hard to understand and can scare a lot of people. The authors collaborated to give a whole set of choices to their audience, challenging them to push themselves to go beyond their comfort zones, saying that what may look like Hell now could turn out to be heaven. The programme is produced by , and began on 14 January 2008 at 4.

Wish You Were Here (Pink Floyd song)

Pink Floyd

This passage was mixed to sound as though a guitarist were listening to the radio and playing along. Ultimately during mixing it was decided to almost remove his contribution, although it can just be heard around 5:21.

Wish You Were Here (1987)

Select albums in the Format field. This passage was mixed to sound as though the guitarist were sitting in a car, listening to the radio; it also contains a whine that slowly changes pitch—emulating the electro-magnetic interference from the engine of a car as it accelerates and decelerates. Sólo éxitos: año a año, 1959—2002 1st ed.
