McConnell's duck and dodge of the issue was no accident. Redlining prevented blacks from buying real estate in wealthier communities, where the real estate values rose the quickest, thereby enriching the owners — but not black ones! Part 8 kind of more like part 1 of questions! For many of the more extremist factions, this has turned into a form of racism as well, where many things that are Western are hated or despised. Research also shows that children are more attuned to faces of the racial majority group.
