NAACP

Du Bois's views gained larger support after the Atlanta Race Riots of 1906. Du Bois own solution to this problem was to join forces with William Monroe Trotter to form the Niagara Movement in 1905. Senator from New York on the American Labor Party ticket and polled a little over 200,000 votes, about 4% of the total.

W. E. B. Du Bois

For Du Bois, sociology is the science of human action, not the science of society as such, or the science of society as a whole.

W. E. B. DuBois Dies in Ghana; Negro Leader and Author, 95

In 1973 Henry Lee Moon gathered a number of essays and articles written by Du Bois for Crisis and published them in book form as The Emerging Thought of W. DuBois Dies in Ghana; Negro Leader and Author, 95 August 28, 1963 OBITUARY W. Library of Congress, Washington, D.

Niagara Movement

In 1940 appeared Dusk of Dawn, subtitled An Essay Toward an Autobiography of a Race Concept. For Du Bois, a politics suitable to counter Jim Crow had to uplift the black masses—to assimilate them to the constitutive norms of modernity—and to heed the ethos of the black folk. The Souls of Black Folk was not well received when it first appeared.
