Re: USA Africa Dialogue Series

Montana laws that imposed an occupation tax on every telephone company providing service in the state imposed an invalid burden on interstate commerce when applied to a company that used the same facilities to furnish both interstate as well as intrastate services. A district court decision holding invalid as a discrimination against aliens a New York law granting public works employment preference to citizens who have resided in state for at least 12 months is summarily affirmed.

Justices dissenting: Brewer, Bradley 118. Louisiana statutes that 1 provided for segregation of races in public schools and the withholding of funds from integrated schools; 2 conferred on the Governor the right to close all schools upon the integration of any one of them; and 3 directed the Governor to supersede a school board under a court order to desegregate and take over management of public schools, denied equal protection of the laws.
