

Whole business of Sindercome, from first to last, it being a perfect narrative of his carriage, during the time of his imprisonment in the Tower of London - As also of the several passages and proceedings at the tryal of the said Sindercome alias Fish, at the Upper-Bench, Westminster, Febr. 9. 1656. Before the Lord Chief Justice Glyn, and Mr. Justice Warburton; withhis sentence. Together with the discourse that past betwixt him and the ministers that visited him, and the manner of his death in the said Tower, the night before the day appointed for his execution.

Printed by Tho. Newcomb -

Description: -

-

Great Britain -- History -- Commonwealth and Protectorate, 1649-1660.

Sindercombe, Miles, -- d. 1657.whole business of Sindercome, from first to last, it being a perfect narrative of his carriage, during the time of his imprisonment in the Tower of London - As also of the several passages and proceedings at the tryal of the said Sindercome alias Fish, at the Upper-Bench, Westminster, Febr. 9. 1656. Before the Lord Chief Justice Glyn, and Mr. Justice Warburton; withhis sentence. Together with the discourse that past betwixt him and the ministers that visited him, and the manner of his death in the said Tower, the night before the day appointed for his execution.

-whole business of Sindercome, from first to last, it being a perfect narrative of his carriage, during the time of his imprisonment in the Tower of London - As also of the several passages and proceedings at the tryal of the said Sindercome alias Fish, at the Upper-Bench, Westminster, Febr. 9. 1656. Before the Lord Chief Justice Glyn, and Mr. Justice Warburton; withhis sentence. Together with the discourse that past betwixt him and the ministers that visited him, and the manner of his death in the said Tower, the night before the day appointed for his execution.

Notes: Signatures: A-C|p4|s.

This edition was published in 1657

Filesize: 4.92 MB

Tags: #

..

...

...

- < Whole business of Sindercome, from first to last, it being a perfect narrative of his carriage, during the time of his imprisonment in the Tower of London - As also of the several passages and proceedings at the tryal of the said Sindercome alias Fish, at the Upper-Bench, Westminster, Febr. 9. 1656. Before the Lord Chief Justice Glyn, and Mr. Justice Warburton; with his sentence. Together with the discourse that past betwixt him and the ministers that visited him, and the manner of his death in the said Tower, the night before the day appointed for his execution. ~ eBook

Related Books

- Ueber die einwirkung von phenylisocyanat auf aminocrotonsäureester.
- Displaced allegories - post-revolutionary Iranian cinema
- Kosovo--ikona srpstva
- Daniel Boone - the life and legend of an American pioneer
- História da reforma agrária