Cicero: Letters to and from Cassius

If you will write me word distinctly what they are, you will find that I have had no desire to be more exacting, and in the future shall be no more yielding, than you wish. Accordingly, in future, if I have anything more to write to you, I shall clothe it in covert language.

Letters to Atticus, Volume I — Cicero, D. R. Shackleton Bailey

From Our Blog While astronomer Vera Rubin made significant contributions to our understanding of dark matter and championed the advancement of women in science, she is not that well known outside of the scientific community.

Letters to Atticus, with an English translation by E.O. Winstedt. (1912 edition)

For you know about the marine villa. As opposed to the mainstream conception that the transformation of the Roman Republic was a result of several factors, in this dissertation I will explore the idea that the transformation was brought about by the interference and motivations of two power-wielding individuals in Rome: Cicero and Caesar. The daily news about is all we could desire; but it is still without a definite source, unconfirmed, and voiced only by rumour.

Petrarch Gallery

You now understand in what stormy water we are and as from what I have written to you in such strong terms you have a view also of what I have not written, come back to me, for it is time you did. I pointed out these facts to ; at the same time I assured him that if the case had been one exclusively between himself and , I would have done what he wished.

Jem Letter To Atticus (To Kill A Mockingbird)

At present there is nothing finished. Whereupon Cassius, with flashing eyes and fairly breathing war, declared he would not go to. Although your essay which I have read with pleasure seemed to me just a trifle rough and bald, yet its very neglect of ornament is an ornament in itself, as women were once thought to have the best perfume who used none.

Cicero: Letters to and from Cassius

Yet, even granting that to be so, I think you should pardon me, since not for sacred beast or oxhide shield.

Letters to Atticus

Continue to love me as you do. I have sent a man to clear the freightage. Published by the Penguin group, Printed in England, St Ives.
