Legal system of Saudi Arabia

The oil, gas and refining industries in Saudi Arabia are controlled by law by Saudi Aramco, which has a near monopoly in these areas. She might have been stoned by irate villagers, but on being taken into custody and judged by Sharia law she gets the opportunity to appeal and explain etc. One of the main reasons cited for Turkey's significant improvement in its human rights efforts over the past few decades is the country's push towards satisfying European Union pre-conditions for membership.

Iraq's rule of law

However, a classical Sharia system is still used in some Islamic states, though most countries have integrated Sharia law with civil or common laws. In addition, the Company Law which is based on Egyptian company law identifies eight permissible forms of corporate entity including joint ventures, and limited liability partnerships. There are five hadd crimes: unlawful sexual intercourse sex outside of marriage and adultery, false accusation of unlawful sexual intercourse, wine drinking sometimes extended to include all alcohol drinking, theft, and highway robbery.

World Report 2020: Egypt

Sunni and Shia are the two major sects of Islam and both have a historical based conflict going back to the death of the Prophet Muhammad and how Muslims should be governed.

Justice and Rule of Law

Former President Mohamed Morsy, whom the army forcibly removed in 2013, died on June 17 in a Cairo court room following six years of lack of in prison. Prior to that, there was no minimum age for marriage and the Grand Mufti reportedly had said in 2009 that girls of the age of 10 or 12 were marriageable. All aspects of a Muslim's life are governed by Sharia.

The 10 Worst Countries For Human Rights

It would be difficult to tally victories and setbacks, since both have been plentiful.

Legal system of Saudi Arabia

What mattered was procedure rather than substance.
