Black Nationalism

According to The Washington Post, their refusal to accept the United States' definition of black has left many feeling attacked from all directions.

Not all black people are African American. Here's the difference.

If the courts become involved, it is difficult to predict their inclinations, especially in the absence of directive legislation. The child was given rights of inheritance to the father's property, so mixed-race children could share in any wealth of the father. We stand in relation to all others, as youth to age.
