

Poetics - a political economic timeseries cross-section system of data, 1920-75

Institute of Political Science, University of Aarhus - Consensus and knowledge production in an academic field

Description: -

-
Travel.
Sports for women.
Women -- Health and hygiene.
Skin -- Care and hygiene.
Beauty, Personal.
Time-series analysis.
Elections.
Economic indicators.
Economic history -- 1918-Poetics - a political economic timeseries cross-section system of data, 1920-75
-Poetics - a political economic timeseries cross-section system of data, 1920-75
Notes: Bibliography: p. 75-79.
This edition was published in 1978

Filesize: 50.93 MB

Tags: #The #Politics #of #Governing #African #Urban #Spaces #in: #African #Cities #and #the #Development #Conundrum

Staat und Wirtschaft unter bürgerlichen und sozialdemokratischen Regierungen

Czech Economic Review, 3 1 , 7—25. Since infrastructure deficits and malfunctioning constitutes the largest brake on sustained economic growth and accumulation, it attracts an inordinate amount of political and technical attention, not least from international actors on the financing side of the development industry. In addition, the estimations suggest that cultural spending increased faster after 1997.

University of Iowa Theses and Dissertations

Europeans travelled to Italy, which in turn nourished culture and ideas around Europe: this unit follows these many pathways. These topics are applied to current issues in Australian labour markets such as enterprise bargaining, the role of centralised wage fixing systems, training and other labour market programs.

The Politics of Governing African Urban Spaces in: African Cities and the Development Conundrum

The content primarily concerns economic principles and theory, but there is also considerable focus on the Australian monetary system and monetary policy in particular. Moreover, political extremism has not always been confined to the right: radical left movements have also marked contemporary European history.

Local government allocation of cultural services

Emphasising real-world examples, we examine competition policy and merger regulation. This unit of study interrogates the changing conceptions of technology in society by tracing the influence of key works in the critical Humanities and social sciences.

Table S Electives

Visible power is the manifest capacity of actors in formal decision-making bodies and public spaces to present and advance their interests, ideological perspective and priorities.

Related Books

- Islam santini taniyalim
- Monagas geográfico y humano
- Concept of community development in Western Nigeria and its historical perspective.
- Lette, Vergangenheit und Gegenwart
- Neuroendokrinologie der Insekten.