But if she was forced, then nothing is required of her, but the husband is obliged to offer two camels: one on his own behalf, and the second on hers. Other false information was bought to him and he even went as far to say that he fears that I am an Ikhwaanee planted in the ranks of the salafees! This hizbi like mentality causes them to have a hyper-keen sense over a mistake that may be made, and once it is made, they make a mountain out of it. It is not permissible for a muhrim to look into a mirror, and all the five schools agree that there is no fidyah for doing so.
