The Seven Ages of Man: Summary & Analysis

He is very sensitive on the point of honour.

'All The World's A Stage' Quote, With Meaning & Analysis

Question 10: How does the justice act out his part on the stage of the world? The sixth age shifts Into the lean and slippered pantaloons, With spectacles on nose and pouch on side; His youthful hose, well saved, a world too wide For his shrunk shank, and his big manly voice, Turning again toward childish treble, pipes And whistles in his sound. He looks like an old fool pantaloons in his ragged slippers slippered. Then a soldier, Full of strange oaths, and bearded like the pard, Jealous in honour, sudden, and quick in quarrel, Seeking the bubble reputation Even in the cannon's mouth.
