Sleep Tight Relax

They became dead set that it was the police.

The phrase 'Sleep tight'

A natural state of rest, occurring at regular intervals, in which the eyes usually close, the muscles relax, and responsiveness to external events decreases. I wake up feeling rested and ready to take on the day. The word was probably chosen because of its rhyme with night, so people wished other 'good night, sleep tight'.

Sleeping tight

The earlier phrase 'tight asleep' derives from this meaning, as seen in this example from Marie Beauchamp's novel Elizabeth and her German Garden, 1898: And once, when there was a storm in the night, she complained loudly, and wanted to know why lieber Gott didn't do the scolding in the daytime, as she had been so tight asleep. It's no wonder that quality sleep is sometimes elusive.

Sleep tips: 6 steps to better sleep

By getting out, you're changing your environment you're meeting people, you're getting out in nature, you're grounding yourself. He says he believed it to be an after hours security breach.
