Youth Economic Empowerment

The Way Forward: Advocacy for Sustained Investments in Girls and Young Women Now more than ever, young women must be equipped with the right skills, resources, and tools to succeed and dismantle societal barriers hindering their progress.

How Do We Empower Young Women and Girls?

The United States has already funded two Global Health Corps Fellows who will support the newly established AGYW Secretariat to work across Ministries to translate this strategy into implementation. Our calls to the European Union We strongly believe that the EU should turn its words into actions and tackle the issue of youth unemployment with strong attention to gender equality. Historical knowledge makes a crucial contribution to our understanding of contemporary questions and the recovery of the history of youth work is no exception.

This is especially difficult for girls living in vulnerable circumstances, because they face a form of marginalization. Young changemakers are putting their dreams into action as they strive for a more inclusive future.

Youth Economic Empowerment

As in any crisis, we know many efforts to organise in the context of COVID-19 are being led by girls and young women, but as usual they will not be resourced or recognised for their work.

The development of agency in professional youth work with girls and young women in the Netherlands — Tilburg University Research Portal

One week ahead of the International Day of the Girl, we wanted to know from Emma where she got her inspiration from, what she believes the EU can do for girls all around the world and what her advice would be to those girls ready to grab life by the lapels? Equality should not be an insult. This is conceptualized as agency, which consist of the properties: intentionality, forethought, self-reactiveness, self-reflection.

The UN World Population Prospects estimates that in 2020, there will be 1. ApplicationsThe findings suggest that participation in girls work contributes to the intentionality of girls in vulnerable circumstances, which is an important step in the development of agency. While some children are forced to work and support their families in dire economic straits, face heightened vulnerabilities.

Investing in Girls and Young Women for a Brighter, Inclusive Future

In the absence of functioning health and social care services in so many places, girls become frontline health responders. This is especially difficult for girls living in vulnerable circumstances, because they face a form of marginalization. Let us look to this Strategy launch as a new opportunity — where public officials, district governments, and development partners actively seek to identify opportunities to work across Ministries and sectors.
