USD President, State Representative engage in dialogue over diversity

One of many examples is that Socrates calls the marriages of the ruling class "; however, they last only one night and are the result of manipulating and drugging couples into predetermined intercourse with the aim of eugenically breeding guardian-warriors. Once you have your topic, characters, and setting, you can start writing that dialogue! Therefore, these philosophers unwittingly projected man as an individual in modern society onto a primordial state of nature. Strauss and Bloom's interpretations, however, involve more than just pointing out inconsistencies; by calling attention to these issues they ask readers to think more deeply about whether Plato is being ironic or genuine, for neither Strauss nor Bloom present an unequivocal opinion, preferring to raise philosophic doubt over interpretive fact.
