

Philosophy, religion, and theology - a catalog of current doctoral dissertation research.

University Microfilms International - Religion, Theology and Philosophy Dissertation Topics and Titles

JP516/545 Core of Life Ethics JP545/546 Current Controversies in Bioethics JP516/551 Ethics, Creation and the Environment After three further subjects from the subjects available at the Institute (other than those 4 that are mandatory for the Graduate Certificate in Religious Education) which are taught at the 500-level only. Take a Master's dissertation OR an additional four subjects from the complete list of subjects available at the Institute (other than those 4 that are mandatory for the Graduate Certificate in Religious Education). If a student chooses to write a Master's dissertation rather than taking an extra 4 subjects then the dissertation is 30,000 words in length. Students who have completed the first 8 subjects of the course also have the option of taking either one or two independent reading subjects with a supervisor. In this case each reading unit is worth the same credit value as one subject. In certain cases credit may be given for previous studies upon application to the Academic Board via the Dean or a Master's level in a recognized institution. Students are encouraged to attend the seminars, conferences and public lectures that are arranged from time to time. Eight subjects are to be completed at Master's level, each with assessment by a single 5000 word essay, or four subjects to be completed at Master's level, each with assessment by a single 5000 word essay, and a dissertation of 30,000 words. Masters level subjects are designated thus. *Course development Some subjects are more advanced and require other subjects to be taken and completed as prerequisites. Thus a student may only enrol in: JP520/603 Contemporary Theologies JP516/556 The Human Presence in the Theology of Benedict XVI JP516/557 C.S. Lewis: Towards a New Theology of the Heart JP516/558 Christ and the Trinity JP516/559 Biblical Theology of Marriage and Family JP520/628 New Evangelicalism in Post-Modern Culture after having completed: JP520 Nature and Method in Theology a student may only enrol in: JP517/617 Love, Freedom and Identity in Karl Wojtyla after having completed: JP520/605 Philosophical Anthropology, or JP520/602 Philosophical Foundations of Bioethics a student may only enrol in: JP520/601 Love, Logic and Appear after having completed one of the following: JP520/605 Philosophical Anthropology

Description: -

-
Catalogs, Publishers -- United States
Dissertations, Academic -- North America -- Bibliography --
Catalogs
Theology -- Bibliography -- Catalogs
Religion -- Bibliography -- Catalogs
Philosophy -- Bibliography -- Catalogs
University Microfilms International -- Catalogs
Philosophy, religion, and theology - a catalog of current doctoral dissertation research.
-Philosophy, religion, and theology - a catalog of current doctoral dissertation research.
Notes: Cover title.

This edition was published in 1983

Filesize: 29.31 MB

Tags: #Religion

Program: Practical Theology, PhD

A copy may be accessed online at:. Students design elective selections depending on their area of study and in order to ensure breadth and depth of study. The composition of both examination committees is subject to the approval of the Ph.

Dissertations that are Needed Today

CURRICULUM Required Courses: 36 Credit hours All 3 Credit Hours First Year DSC 6301 Pro-Seminar Methods DSC 7301 History of Christian Spirituality DSC 7302 Hermeneutics of Religious Experience DSC 7303 Contemporary Spirituality Second Year DSC 6302 Foundations DSC 7305 Seminar and Practicum in Teaching Spirituality DSE 8300 Selected Classical Writer 1 course DSC 7304 Spirituality of the Trinity Third Year DSC 7306 Integrating Seminar Methods DSE 8300 Selected Contemporary Writer 1 course Fourth Year DSC 9000 Comprehensives non-credit DSC 9001 Dissertation Proposal Writing non-credit Fifth Year DSC 9003 PhD Dissertation: Research DSC 9005 PhD Dissertation: Writing Elective Courses 18 required credit hours All electives are 3 credit hours.

Theology and Science

Accepted PhD students do not need not to apply for scholarships. Credits earned towards the MDiv degree are not considered for advanced standing. Southern National Theological Seminary degree programs are designed to be completed online through a self study format.

Program: Doctor of Philosophy, Ph.D.

Possess historical perspective on the theological and practical problems of the present. Students are encouraged to take electives in their area of emphasis.

Related Books

- Do animals take baths? - questions kids ask about animals
- Problema dell'educazione infantile.
- Economics versus human rights
- Mensch als Typus
- Archetypen