problematic, however.

Public Financing of Campaigns: Overview

As a result, the Liberals and NDP have become increasingly dependent on public financial support in funding their operations and election activities. In 1920, candidates were required to reveal the names of contributors and the amount of their donations. The table below details contribution limits for federal elections in 2015 and 2016.

Wrong to Use Tax Money for Campaigns

This coercion would happen more to Republicans than Democrats at first, but Republicans might get better at claiming the subsidies over time. Those that apply for public funds must agree to abide by the state expenditure limits specific to each office. Presented to the Annual Meeting of the Prairie Provinces Political Science Association, Regina, Saskatchewan, September 27, 2008.

New state budget has taxpayers funding political campaigns

This requirement is detailed in Minnesota State Statute 10A.
