

Report of the British Guiana and British Honduras Settlement Commission.

H.M.S.O. - Papers Relating to the Foreign Relations of the United States, With the Annual Message of the President Transmitted to Congress December 7, 1896, and the Annual Report of the Secretary of State

Description: -

-

International schools -- Indonesia.

Accreditation (Education) -- Law and legislation -- Indonesia.

Educational law and legislation -- Indonesia.

Fascism -- Europe

Land settlement -- Belize.

Land settlement -- Guyana. Report of the British Guiana and British Honduras Settlement Commission.

-Report of the British Guiana and British Honduras Settlement Commission.

Notes: Accompanied by 9 colour maps in pocket at rear.

This edition was published in -

Filesize: 36.17 MB

Tags: #Caribbean #Elections

Foreign Relations of the United States Diplomatic Papers, 1939, General, The British Commonwealth and Europe, Volume II

My thought in transferring the locale to Washington is to enable us to deal through a sympathetic British Ambassador with the Foreign Office and the Prime Minister rather than sending messages to our Embassy in London which in practice usually discusses British Guiana with the not so sympathetic Colonial Office. Manfull 1 1 Printed from a copy that indicates Manfull signed above Battle's typed signature. In pursuance of this program the President received Jagan on his visit to this country in October.

British Honduras

Jagan is infinitely preferable to Burnham Fraser as stating in Georgetown: 1 racialism is a greater danger than political differences; 2 all political parties must accept the inevitability of independence; 3 Britain was not aware of any Communist threat to British Guiana. In spite of the fact that there existed a legal prohibition of stoppage of work and the acceptance of compulsory arbitration during the first Great War, serious industrial disputes and stoppages of work took place in Great Britain.

Papers Relating to the Foreign Relations of the United States, With the Annual Message of the President Transmitted to Congress December 7, 1896, and the Annual Report of the Secretary of State

So long as is prepared to try and get along with Jagan the United States is faced with a dilemma in its own approach - whether to take a line contrary to the UK, or to accept the UK thesis and hope for the best while seeking to build in safeguards in the form of contingency plans for a reversal of policy. Photographic Prints and Lantern Slides: Scenes along the international boundary, in albums, 1901-37 CB, 3,596 images. In this, he was buoyed by his re-election as Trinidadian leader on 4 December 1961.

Declassified Documents on British Guiana

Our position is set out below and, though it has been discussed with BNA, it is very much INR's point of view. I wish to draw the attention of the House for a short time to a document of very great importance and far-reaching consequence.

Records of the Foreign Service Posts of the Department of State

On January 21 1958, a force of pro-Guatemalan fighters from the Belize Liberation Army, who had likely been aided and encouraged by Guatemala, crossed the border and raised the Guatemalan flag. It could be that Ramsahoye, an opportunist, and possibly one or two backbenchers could be induced to defect for private gain of one type or another. However matters have worsened, the British have moved troops in from Jamaica and flown in two companies from the UK at Jagan's request.

British Guiana

In this case, as we shall be going into greater detail, I think it would be better that the consultations should be held in London. Jagan came with exaggerated expectations of what economic assistance we might provide. Nevertheless, Jagan will be under some restraints not to ride roughshod over the wishes of the public - Negro as well as East Indian.

Report and Accompanying Papers of the Commission Appointed by the President ...

Telegram From the Department of State to the Embassy in the United Kingdom Washington, September 4, 1961, 3:51 p. The remainder of the population includes small numbers of British, Portuguese, native Indian, and Chinese residents Partially self-governing since elections in 1957, the colony is scheduled to assume increased responsibilities for its own affairs following new elections on 21 August 1961 and, if all goes well, to gain full independence two or three years thereafter.

British Honduras

Textual Records: Records relating to German sabotage activities in the United States, 1917-41, and to claims arising out of specific acts of sabotage at Black Tom and Kingsland, NJ, 1924-41.

Related Books

- Charter and supplemental charter of the Hudsons Bay Company
- Deliver us from evil - a symposium on mental hospitals, mental illness, and psychiatry
- TransUrbanism
- Childhood behaviour and mental health
- Tree growth