Featuring a wealth of illustrative case examples, this is an indispensable clinical guidebook and text. Sells, PhD, is Professor of Social Work at Savannah State University and Clinical Director of the Savannah Family Institute. I liked the identification on when to apply the Tough Love and when to increase the Nurturing.

Scott P. Sells

He sought to teach them the coping skills required to seek out and engage in these activities as they grew and transformed in their recovery. And these are all core elements of the CRA and A-CRA approaches to treatment. Then, they emphasize positive communication.
