

Tarrant County historic resources survey - principal findings & resource characteristics

The Council - Historic Preservation Council for Tarrant County, Texas [WorldCat Identities]

Description: -

-
Tarrant County (Tex.) -- History, Local
Architecture -- Texas -- Tarrant County
Historic sites -- Texas -- Tarrant County
Tarrant County historic resources survey - principal findings & resource characteristics
-Tarrant County historic resources survey - principal findings & resource characteristics
Notes: Includes indexes.
This edition was published in 1982

Filesize: 19.76 MB

Tags: #Tarrant #County #historic #resources #survey #(1982 #edition)

Historic Preservation Council for Tarrant County

Hill, William Ward Watkin, and John F. The mule-drawn streetcar line from Fort Worth came to Polytechnic College in 1892, adding to the forces that would make Polytechnic Heights part of Fort Worth. McRae Elementary School, named for Duncan McRae, county school superintendent from 1894 to 1900.

Historic Preservation Council for Tarrant County, Texas [WorldCat Identities]

Historic sites and buildings in this book have some type of official historical designation. The electric streetcar came in 1897 on a line that ran from downtown Fort Worth out Vickery Avenue, then south on Nashville Avenue and back into town on Rosedale Street. Also looks at subdivisions in Fort Worth, San Antonio, Amarillo, Wichita Falls, Beaumont, Galveston, and Port Arthur to provide information on how city planners worked with landscape architects to incorporate infrastructure improvements, coordinate landscape planning, and employ such legal devices as restrictive covenants to shape elite space coherently.

HISTORY 1

Maps guide you to sites in Fort Worth and surrounding communities, and lively text expands on the history of each entry. With the coming of World War I, local leaders persuaded the U. Tarrant County Historic Resources Survey: Principal Findings and Resource Characteristics Fort Worth: Historic Preservation Council for Tarrant County, 1982.

Tarrant County historic resources survey. (1991 edition)

Fox analyzes the roles of space, structure, and decoration in creating, defining, and maintaining social class structures and expectations and shows how Staub was able to incorporate these elements and understandings into the elegant buildings he designed for his clients. Presenting the city's most architecturally significant buildings, this volume focuses on historical buildings whose design and background reflect periods of the city's history, but whose stories are not always well known today.

HISTORY 1

Tarrant County Historic Resources Survey. It is situated at the corner of Ninth and Houston streets.

HISTORY 1

. McRae Elementary on Bishop Street. This site is best experienced with supported browsers: Internet Explorer 9 and above, Google Chrome, Mozilla Firefox, or Apple Safari.

HISTORY 1

Fort Worth's legendary landmarks demonstrate the brick-and-mortar responses the community made to the forces that shaped its history. . Before a separate high school was built, Polytechnic students attended the Manchester School.

Historic Preservation Council for Tarrant County, Texas [WorldCat Identities]

The Polytechnic School District was formed in 1906 in part due to the efforts of William James, a local tanner and saddlemaker.

Related Books

- Algebraic topology - proceedings of a workshop held at the University of Washington, Seattle, 1985
- Gate of hell - campaign for Charleston Harbor, 1863
- NIH/ADAMHA/CDC technology transfer
- Bha ratana tya and its costume
- Jackals and snarling wolves - the West Virginia Board of Medicine