

Let us proclaim the mystery of faith.

Veritas - GLENN PACKIAM

Do this as often as you drink it
to remember me.
Therefore, God of all creation,
in the suffering and death of Jesus our redeemer,
we meet you in your glory.
Here and now, with this bread and wine,
we celebrate your great acts of liberation,
ever present and living in Jesus Christ, crucified and risen,
who was and is and is to come.

Either
With thanksgiving and hope we say:
Glory to you, Lord Christ;
your death we show forth;
your resurrection we proclaim;
your coming we await;
Amen! Come Lord Jesus.

Or
Let us proclaim the mystery of our faith:
Christ has died,
Christ is risen,
Christ will come in glory.
May Christ ascend in majesty
be our new and living way,
in him we offer ourselves to do your will.
Empower our celebration with your Holy Spirit,
feed us with your life,
fire us with your love,
confront us with your justice,
and make us one in the body of Christ
with all who share your gifts of love
Through Christ,
in the power of the Holy Spirit,
with all who stand before you
in earth and heaven,
we worship you, Creator God,
in songs of everlasting praise.

Blessing, honour and glory be yours,
here and everywhere,
now and forever. Amen.

The Order of the Mass

He broke the bread, gave it to his disciples and said: Take this, all of you, and eat it: this is my body which will be given up for you. The passion of Christ is more explicitly referred to by the reference to the cross.

Memorial Acclamation

An acclamation is spoken in the second person, whereas a proclamation is in the third person. Lord Jesus, come in glory. In memory of his death and resurrection, we offer you, Father, this life-giving bread, this saving cup.

Do this in memory of me. EUCHARISTIC PRAYER IV PRAISE TO THE FATHER Father, we acknowledge your greatness: all your actions show your wisdom and love. I suppose it is obvious.

GLENN PACKIAM

Renew the living spring of your life within us and protect us in spirit and body, that we may be free from sin and come into your presence to receive your gift of salvation. Now they intend the same thing for the Mystery of Faith. Some have criticised the removal of the phrase mysterium fidei from the words of consecration.

Memorial Acclamation

It was a liturgical borrowing from one of the Oriental Rites. As Walt Whitman has stated,.

Let Us Proclaim the Mystery of Faith

Then, in your kingdom, freed from the corruption of sin and death, we shall sing your glory with every creature through Christ our Lord, through whom you give us everything that is good. While I agree with all of that, I also noticed that, at least from my perception, my old Evangelical church was very much concerned with fact and law and coming up with the exact right answer on how to live life and serve God. The priest or deacon prays quietly: By the mystery of this water and wine may we come to share in the divinity of Christ, who humbled himself to share in our humanity.

GLENN PACKIAM

There is no agreement among liturgical scholars as to the exact meaning of this phrase, given the present state of research on the matter, and this is sometimes advanced as a reason for its elimination. TO HONOUR THE SAINTS In union with the whole Church, we honour Mary, the ever-virgin mother of Jesus Christ our Lord and God.
