Having a strong focus on alternate real estate assets gives us a tremendous advantage and Harrison Street has seen significant incremental growth, both in North America and Europe, as part of Colliers. So, if we were to look at another acquisition in investment management, we would look for a profile similar to Harrison Street, where we could partner with the operating management team, where we could help them grow their business globally by leveraging everything Colliers brings to the table, including distribution, and operate them in a more entrepreneurial way than perhaps an insurance company might or somebody like that.
