Both were sporting matching hair dos - a curly blow dry by Samantha, a stylist based in Manchester, and matching England cowgirl hats. They put in the work, gave it their best and gave the nation something to celebrate after a difficult year for the country, nay the entire - but more on that later.

England players celebrate reuniting with their loved ones after four weeks apart

Shearer scored the only goal against Germany, which meant England had their fate in their own hands in the final match with Romania, but they lost another five-goal thriller. The England team put their heartbreak behind them last night as they reunited with their families and partners after four weeks apart and spent the night partying in a lavish suite in Wembley.
