Jefferson Bible

You need not be teasing your husbands because of their deeds, but let the weight of your innocence, kindness and affection be felt, which is more mighty than a millstone hung about the neck; not war, not jangle, not contradiction, or dispute, but meekness, love, purity — these are the things that should magnify you in the eyes of all good men. I never wrote a line of slander against my bitterest enemy, nor encouraged it in any other.
