Great Britain, The Soviet Union and the Polish Government in Exile (1939)

Our assumption that the Baltic countries and Finland, as well as Rumania, were in our sphere of interest completed for the Soviet Government the feeling of being menaced. Pilsudski signified his agreement with the fundamental ideas of the German proposal. I explained to Mikoyan the purpose of my trip and pointed out the unfavorable impression which his last communication of June 8 had left with us.

Archives West: World War II pamphlet collection, 1937

My main objective has been to investigate the actual operation of the Polish government and the overall policies of the British government vis-a-vis the Soviet Union insofar as they had a direct bearing on Anglo-Polish relations. I replied that much could be said about these questions; that I had not, however, come to talk of the past, but of the future. For I believe that all States will have to face the same problems that we once had to face.

Declaración de Paz Alemania

Some isolated Polish managed to hold their positions long after they had been surrounded by German forces.

THE BRITISH WAR BLUE BOOK

I took advantage of this opportunity to explain in detail our opinion concerning the change in Russian Bolshevism during recent years.

The German

This was particularly evident at the talk between the Fuehrer and M.

Documents concerning German

Even if we had subsequently gone to war to punish Germany for her actions, and if after the frightful losses which would have been inflicted upon all partakers in the war we had been victorious in the end, never could we have reconstructed Czecho-Slovakia as she was framed by the Treaty of Versailles. Germany, under her present regime, has sprung a series of unpleasant surprises upon the world. The Reich Minister for Foreign Affairs then went on to say that he thought it was time to make a clean sweep of all existing possibilities of friction between Germany and Poland.

september 1939

Poland was especially interested in the Carpatho-Ukrainian question. On September 1, I am to travel in the new grey uniform from Berlin to Nuernberg with the other gentlemen of the Foreign Office.

The Avalon Project : The British Bluebook

Beck drew the attention of Sir H. Thus to-day, any new drive on the part of German economic enterprise in Iran is not only subject to espionage in every detail through an excellently organized news service, but is also sabotaged wherever possible. The paralysis of command and the breakdown of morale were not made the ultimate aim of the.
