Aboriginal justice issues

Upon the recommendation of the Second Committee, the General Assembly adopted of 22 December 1992, in which it endorsed the Rio Declaration on Environment and Development and urged Governments and organs, organizations and programmes of the United Nations system to take the necessary action to give effective follow-up to the Rio Declaration. In 1993, the Squamish Nation opened its own FNCFS agency, known as Ayas Men Men Child and Family Services Ayas Men Men. A person who produces a painting in Aboriginal society is not necessarily thought to be the 'owner' of the work, but may have been given authority to produce certain designs or images by others within the community, who may be members of a clan to whom the designs or images are said to 'belong'.

For each Contracting Party which ratifies, accepts or approves this Convention or accedes thereto after the deposit of the thirtieth instrument of ratification, acceptance, approval or accession, it shall enter into force on the ninetieth day after the date of deposit by such Contracting Party of its instrument of ratification, acceptance, approval or accession. In RAFI's report Conserving Indigenous Knowledge: Integrating Two Systems of Innovation the authors argue that Indigenous peoples have a number of options available to them for protecting their knowledge. In the context of the World Conference on Women and the , as well as the of 1968, the World Conference on Human Rights reaffirms, on the basis of equality between women and men, a woman's right to accessible and adequate health care and the widest range of family planning services, as well as equal access to education at all levels.

Education, raising of public awareness and training are linked to virtually all areas in Agenda 21, and even more closely to the ones on meeting basic needs, capacity-building, data and information, science, and the role of major groups. Finally, in all three samples, a decline in SWB from early to mid-adolescence was observed. Special attention should be given to ensure universal respect for, and effective implementation of, the Principles of Medical Ethics relevant to the Role of Health Personnel, particularly Physicians, in the Protection of Prisoners and Detainees against Torture and other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment adopted by the General Assembly of the United Nations.
