6 ancient sources that prove the traditional authorship of the Four Gospels

Luke was a Gentile non-Jewish doctor, who was a close companion of Paul. The gospels are historical narrative motivated by theological concerns. It was probably during this two years in Rome 60-62AD that Luke wrote his gospel.

Who wrote the gospels?

The difference is the difference between a full title and an abbreviated title—nothing more. They are often presumed to be guilty until proven innocent. Epaphras, who is one of you and a servant of Christ Jesus, sends greetings.

Current version published by Grange Books, London. Since Clement provides a number of details not found in any known fragment of Papias and since Clement was from the Alexandrian church Mark is said to have founded, it is likely that Clement has at least some independent information. For the testimony of Papias, see HE 3. Each of the four gospels—Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John—paints a unique portrait of Jesus.
