The Strengths and Weaknesses of Dualism

Is it not the task of the novelist to convey this varying, this unknown and uncircumscribed spirit, whatever aberration or complexity it may display, with as little mixture of the alien and external as possible? The subjective nature of impressionistic perception, then, fundamentally destabilizes any solid conception of universal truth, rendering all epistemological structures relative rather than absolute. For it is, to each, life itself 179.

Ezra Pound, Wyndham Lewis, and Radical Modernism

The parallel is by no means fortuitous, for these products of the nineteen-twenties are closely akin to one another, in both spirit and mode of composition. Mystery depends upon knowledge — we cannot master a thing of which we have no knowledge.

The Strengths and Weaknesses of Dualism

Additionally, we experience interaction between the two substances in the other direction: when something is bothering our mind, we almost immediately notice it in our health and physical state. He was a rare specimen in these times of ours : a specimen of silent self- obliteration in these times of deafening self-trumpeting.
