The citron, Tolkowsky holds, was introduced into Palestine in the 2nd century B. It opens with an impassioned denunciation, which inevitably loses in translation from the original Hebrew: The shriek of the children of Israel on Corfu, the island of blood, pierces heaven. For one thing, the land was overrun with wild animals which were a constant threat to the safety and peace of the inhabitants Exodus 23:29,30.

By the erection of a fire altar Agni is made present, and communication with the world of the gods is ensured; the space of the altar becomes a sacred space. Multitudes were added to the church. .

Egypt Babylon Scripture Profane Sources

It does not lie within our province to write the history of the gradual desacralization of the human dwelling. Every construction and every inauguration of a new dwelling are in some measure equivalent to a new beginning, a new life. It could be said that the very structure of the cosmos keeps memory of the celestial supreme being alive.
