The journals and letters of Fanny Burney (Madame D'Arblay) : Burney, Fanny, 1752

Her modern reputation, however, rests primarily on her extensive journals and letters. The reviews originate in a group of selected periodicals in the humanities, social sciences, and general science published in the United States, Canada, and Great Britain.

Early Journals and Letters of Fanny Burney

These will carry her through the period of her greatest fame as the author of the novels Evelina 1778 and Cecilia 1782 , and will end with her exit from the Court of King George III and Queen Charlotte after five exhausting years of service to the Queen as Second Keeper of the Robes. Do be advised that shipments may be delayed due to extra safety precautions implemented at our centers and delays with local shipping carriers. Novelists are ordered alphabetically; each section begins with a list of the author's published fiction, followed by chronologically ordered summaries of critical articles, papers, theses, and dissertations.
