Full text of books I. and

Eodem anno Signia colonia, quam rex Tarquinius deduxerat, suppleto numero colonorum iterum deducta est. Quibus orantibus dictatorem senatumque ut veniam erroris hominibus adulescentibus darent, responsum ignosci adulescentibus posse, senibus non posse qui bella ex bellis sererent. They sent a golden crown as a gift to the Capitoline Jupiter.

Livy II

But there is nothing which I can suffer now that will not bring more disgrace to you than wretchedness to me; whatever unhappiness awaits me it will not be for long. Ad id feriendum consul alter Romae mansit: alter ad Volscum bellum missus Antiates Volscos fundit fugatque; compulsos in oppidum Longulam persecutus moenibus potitur. Nor was the victory only a momentary one, for they elected as consuls for the following year M.

Livy's History of Rome

The tensions between the plebs represented politically by the tribunes and the patricians represented politically by the senate.
