Desh Stories

A young person anticipates that parents will arrange his or her marriage. While separate spaces for women sometimes did exist in the ancient period, they didn't become a norm until the Muslim period.

Women's Position in Hinduism

Otherwise the sense of beauty survived in only one form in the lives of women. Dalit autobiographies provide an antithesis to the dominant political views present in India today as reported experiences in biographical forms have brought to attention the institutionalisation of Dalit discrimination. However, they regarded women as useful and productive members of society.

Customs and Cuisine of Pakistan

The most regrettable aspect of such specialization lay not in the moral field but in the aesthetic.

Status of women

Among some south Indians communities and many Muslims, families seek to strengthen existing kin ties through marriages with cousins whenever possible.
