Cha guan : Lao, She, 1899

One of their interns even wrote when I think might be the most concise and informative English-language text on Japanese tea. I tend to agree with Wang Lifa, though, when he says that playing pop music in the teahouse was a slightly retrograde step! The experience reminds me a lot of the I found at in San Francisco, but maybe a little less intense.

Cha Guan Teahouse

They were founded when several young people turned away from the rushed pace of the modern world and fell in love with Uji tea.

Cha guan (1982)

I stumbled upon the green tea that tastes like corn on the cob again! The flavor I found that most stood out in the first handful of infusions was a distinct leatheriness with a bit of an iron tang. Cha guan (1994 edition)

This was a good tea to kick-start an otherwise lazy afternoon. Every table at the Chaya Teahouse will have its own gongfu cha tea set to allow you to have a meditative tea drinking experience — a little time to heal and to restore.

Lao She Cha Guan

Yoshi Watada used several different temperatures to make each infusion a whole experience unto itself.

Cha Guan Teahouse

It has a full mouth feel that leaves a lingering dryness behind.
