Golden Slippers: About the Song

But what is a Mummer? By the late nineteenth century, mummer celebrations had become quite large and raucous, particularly in South Philadelphia, the heart of the mummer tradition. Such imagery could be found in the published music of James Bland and most other minstrel songwriters of the era. Connecting readers with great books since 1972.

In 2004, the parade was moved back to Broad Street. It didn't hold together very well.

O, Dem Golden Slippers: Gender Variance & the Mummers Parade

While Mummers can be found throughout the city and suburbs of Philadelphia, the heart of the Mummers is in South Philadelphia, along Second Street and Third Street, in neighborhoods called Pennsport and Whitman. Written by James Bland, an African American, which was introduced into the parade in 1905 by minstrel Charles Dumont.

Philadelphia Mummers Parade: Wonderful 117

When European immigrants from Scandanavia, from Britain and other parts of Europe began arriving in the 17 th Century, they brought their Mummer traditions with them.

Oh Dem Golden Slippers

Occupations such as longshoremen and firefighters have solid Mummer ties. They were called female impersonators, character types, lovely creatures, drag queens, pansies, divas.
