Review of Virginia Woolf: Lesbian Readings, ed. Besides, how shall one understand all of the talking that goes on at Cambridge? Sure, Barnes and Noble's got her likeness silkscreened onto a couple million canvas bags, and the British National Portrait Gallery sells thousands of Woolf postcards a month. You can be sure that our custom-written papers are original and properly cited.

Although there is new material in the Hermione Lee biography, and much astute commentary, its strength lies not in revelation but in artful layering of the past and present. If this was so, it would be possible to interpret the new paragraph as the introduction of another point of view. Oddly, Elaine never made the same kind of impact on film.
