Three Strategies for Serving Underserved Students (Opinion)

Two things, in our opinion, have marked it's evolution recently: the social web and mobile technology. African-American students had an average GPA of B and a World Literature average of C; white students had an average GPA of B+ and a World Literature average of C+. An important objective for the nurse during this initial session involves exploring ways for the girls to attend the club regularly and supplement MVPA on their own outside the club and overcoming resistance.
