Advantages to sixth form colleges over school sixth forms

The school admissions system is, apparently, now taking the blame for the lack of social mobility which is blighting opportunities and depriving the nation of much-needed talent. Try again now or later.

Aspects of Staffing

By TNE we mean the delivery of educational programmes, award or credit bearing, by higher education institutions in countries other than their own.

DFE Performance Tables

Making appropriate staffing decisions is one of the most important tasks for a manager or small business owner. Try again now or later. Each student will build their own learning programmes around essential skills using subject options which are both relevant and necessary.

UCU

Having an effective framework in place to which governors or trustees regularly refer will help to mitigate against potential conflict issues arising and govern how they are addressed when they inevitably do.

Employment rights in sixth form colleges

Try again now or later. Our aims support those of the Department for Education and, in particular, prepare students for the opportunities, responsibilities and experiences of adult life. In a few areas, authorities run sixth form schools which function like sixth form colleges but are completely under the control of the local education authorities.

DFE Performance Tables

Try again now or later. The colleges are also a large service provider for where most of the training takes place at the apprentices' workplace, supplemented with day release into college.
