Taff's suggestion that the Filipinos may prefer at the end of a consider able period a relation to the United States like that of Australia and Canada to Great Britain; they must expose the unfairness by which Mr.

The Anti

The anti-imperialists must see that the hope of independence is preserved and strengthened; not betrayed by an idle use of the name, to quiet the agitation of the matter in the United States and in the Philippine Islands; they must demonstrate the inconsistency of Mr. The present programme of the anti-imperialists is simple and hopeful. With whatever degree of sincerity, independence is now found in the mouths of the responsible representatives of the Repub lican party, the President and the President-elect.

Excerpt The anti-imperialist League has faith to believe that in spite of all that has come and gone, Senator Hoar's prediction that the fall of the Republic would date from the seizure or purchase of the Philippine Islands may not be realized. The atonement made in giv ing back their independence to the Philippine Islands might purge the United States from that treason to democracy into which it has been betrayed and from which it has suffered at home by the reac tion of foreign imperialism, in the assumption by the Executive in the last few years that the end justifies the means, that any methods of procedure, however illegal and violent, may be taken to bring about the object of its desire.
