Week in the Woods

They are on shore at last; then, while they are lost in the most astonishing caper of all, the fox dashes among them, throwing them into the wildest confusion.

Folk Of The Wood

They recognize each other instantly amid multitudes of their kind; and one who watches them patiently sees quite as many odd ways and individualities among Wood Folk as among other people.

List of beings referred to as fairies

These creatures were only about 2—3 feet tall; some were as small as 6 inches.

Among them, most eager, most intense, most frequent of all associations, there is a boy with nerves all a-tingle at the vast sweet mystery that rustled in every wood, following the call of the winds and the birds, or wandering alone where the spirit moved him, who never studied nature consciously, but only loved it, and who found out many of these Ways long ago, guided solely by a boy's instinct. LONG ALL RIGHTS RESERVED To Plato, the owl, who looks over my shoulder as I write, and who knows all about the woods.
