How to use in a sentence

Parvati and Lavender weren't confused since they found it highly romantic and couldn't resist giggling each time they saw the couple. He would embody the character of Weary Willie going as far as taking on the demeanor of his predecessors, adopting all the same gestures and facial expressions and vocal intonation. Bosses have boasted of automating their operations for years without an awful lot to show for it.

Wary or Weary

Muir cited the sequel's focus on increased and violence as the cause of this discrepancy in the quality of the two films' characters. I was growing weary reading about someone I don't know and also fear may be the product of your fertile, er, imagination. A photograph taken of him on that fateful day was featured in Life Magazine, a surreal image of a clown heading toward the burning big top with a small bucket of water.

After 7 Weary Years

Since she refrained from answering the loud-mouthed boy, his intervention had been successful. I bid you a good day. So we recommend you pay attention to this one.
