Chess + comedy: a double act in India

Dressed to the nines in cocktail dresses and pearl necklaces, they presided over musical evenings, the songs of dear Mr Ivor Novello and Sir Noel Coward being particular favourites, although their main passion was reserved for Gilbert and Sullivan. We had been friends but the double act destroyed that friendship. For some duos, the daily pressures of writing and performing together build trust and synergy. Think of Rose Wylie, Alice Neal, Mary Delany and Annie Proulx.
