

May I quote you, General Lee? - observations and utterances from the Souths great generals

Gramercy Books - THE SOUTH'S DEFENDER: 150

Description: -

-

United States -- History -- Civil War, 1861-1865 -- Quotations, maxims, etc.

Quotations, American.

Lee, Robert E. 1807-1870 -- Quotations. May I quote you, General Lee? - observations and utterances from the Souths great generals

-May I quote you, General Lee? - observations and utterances from the Souths great generals

Notes: Originally published: Memphis, Tenn. : Guild Bindery Press, 1995.

This edition was published in 2002

Filesize: 30.47 MB

Tags: #The #American #Civil #War

Confederate Magazine 1896 Volume 4

This took place at the camps at Rockville and through the establishment of supply depots at Frederick and Hagerstown, Md.

Battle of Chancellorsville

We are met on a great battle-field of that war. Investigate, it will pay you.

Looking at the Battle of Gettysburg Through Robert E. Lee's Eyes

He moved all day long with as much rapidity as the nature of the country through which he was passing would allow. Only uneducated people such as the mayor, equate the civil war with slavery. .

THE SOUTH'S DEFENDER: 150

Only some 5% of the Northern merchant marine had been destroyed. The British at Bunker Hill? Jefferson Davis declared the seizure as beneath the dignity even of 'barbarians'. US Sharpshooters: Colonel Hiram Berdan was authorized to raise a regiment of marksmen as the US Sharpshooters on 14 June 1861.

May I Quote You, General Lee?: Observations & Utterances of the South's Great Generals, Volume 2 by Randall J. Bedwell, Paperback

. This branch has in hand the marking of all graves of Confederate soldiers now unmarked, and the erection of a Confederate monument in some prominent place in Jacksonville.

James Longstreet

No one will ever know what Abraham Lincoln would have done — with Stanton's scheme for military government, with radicals like Wade and Sumner and Stevens, with any of the separate aspects of the intricate problem that lay ahead — because it was at this delicate moment about half-past ten on the night of April 14 that Booth came on stage with his derringer.

Stonewall Jackson

Franz Sigel would advance up the Shenandoah Valley. Between 1861 and 1865, Americans made war on each other and killed each other in great numbers — if only to become the kind of country that could no longer conceive of how that was possible.

Related Books

- Marxist state governments in India - politics, economics and society
- Hacia el futuro - nuevos escenarios para el desarrollo rural
- Italy - the essential guide to viewing Italian Renaissance Art
- Computer concepts - screen by screen
- Control technology equipment guide