Vita Edwardi Secundi: The Life of Edward the Second (Oxford Medieval Texts)

Unfortunately there is a large ink -stain covering part of it. However, although there was no serious political dissent left in England, violence continued, as is shown by Ewer's attack, and the attempt to release Berkeley from Wallingford castle, which took place about February 1323. Francis the Daughter of Henry Mowting and Mary his Wife, The 7 th.
