Why is a specific flower offered to a specific God ?

Every philosophical school has discussed theology and have expressed different ideas. There were no flowers for sale—they were free for all to pick and take.

Offering Flowers, Feeding Skulls

Also give flowers to older people who are unable to go and collect them, such as your parents, and let them make offerings. These waves do not cause any distress to the individual.

Offering Flowers

Many people like to decorate Deities with flowers in temples at their homes, as it gives a divine look to the God Deity. Usually people are more familiar with the idea of him as the god of wine and sometimes, the god of theatre and performing arts and acting. Karmaśataka-sūtra says that Anāthapiṇḍada paid more than 100,000 gold coins for a lotus that grew in the King's garden in order to offer it the Buddha.

Offering Flowers

It gives you the opportunity to give thanks, to ask for forgiveness or to seek help with finding health and happiness. Most answers you will get, if you ever get one, will never be satisfactory enough.

Why is a specific flower offered to a specific God ?

You will be very beautiful; everyone will be attracted and amazed to look at you and will remember seeing you. We also have the unsurpassable field or source to make merits the Three Jewels.
