Documentation and the Nurse Care Planning Process

They conducted a metasynthesis of 14 qualitative research reports to determine how well individualized patient care was represented in nursing documentation. A nursing home, also known as a skilled nursing facility, provides a wide range of health and personal care services. Finally, there are valid instances of successful education interventions that improve aspects of documentation and care.

Nursing Facilities

These include: the amount of time spent documenting; the number of errors in the records; , , the need for legal accountability; the desire to make nursing work visible; and the necessity of making nursing notes understandable to the other disciplines.
