Leicestershire

Jesus points out more than once that concern for what is right and good can lead us into conflict with those closest to us, as many people in the UK and the USA have been discovering during the past four years — and the decision to follow Jesus is a much more life-changing decision than voting in a referendum or an election. After several failed leaders, Captain took charge of the settlement, and many credit him with sustaining the colony during its first years, as he had some success in trading for food and leading the discouraged colonists.
