Loss of a loved one can spell a period of intense grief and depression for some of us. With that loss he senses his first responsibility in a materialistic world; where those whom you love and your worldly possessions will not be with you forever. He learns that there are so many things in life that are lost and cannot be brought back.

In My Home over There Lyrics

Make your Mother proud of you
And the old Chorus Over there, over there,
Send the word, send the word over there
That the are coming, the Yanks are coming
The drums run-tumming everywhere.

In My Home over There Lyrics

Is it linked to the memories of days when he played with it? Life on the kibbutz has its turbulence: Rami, Avramik's cousin, is jealous of the time Avramik spends with Rami's father; the children argue over who should care for a puppy that comes to live with them. Till death he carried o'er his heart A picture of this lad.
