Reform of the House of Lords

Defeat no Date Bill Subject Majority The UK government was defeated 45 times in the House of Lords during the parliamentary session of 2006-07. There is a requirement to keep a record of purchases and addresses, and of the sale of an article worth over £100.

The legislative process

Convicted terrorists Sudesh Amman L and Usman Khan R both launched attacks after being freed from prison early Picture: PA The House of Lords could delay emergency legislation aimed at blocking the early release of terrorism offenders. The main point of argument claimed by opponents of Section 28 was the complaint that it discriminated against homosexuals and bisexuals, and hence was an and unjust law.

Brexit amendments in the House of Lords

The Conservative amendment was unsuccessful, and Section 28 was repealed by the Labour Government without concession, with Cameron absent for the vote on its eventual repeal. The 20% non-party-political element would include a reduced number of , whose appointment would not go through the Statutory Appointments Commission.

Brexit amendments in the House of Lords

The bill was read a first time in the Lords two days later. Membership was to be separated from the peerage which would continue as an honour.

Non

These included the reduction of the total number of lords, the complete severance of ties between the and seats in Parliament, and an either 80- or 100-percent elected chamber consisting of lords serving nonrenewable 12- or 15-year terms. There are a number of the Bill's aspects that concern me, many of them small but one great. However, he cannot do so until a 4-week period has elapsed during which the law officers of the Scottish government or the UK government can refer the bill to the for a ruling on whether it is within the powers of the parliament.
