

Late contemplated insurrection in Charleston, S.C. with the execution of thirty-six of the patriots - the death of William Irving, the provoked husband: and Joe Devaul, for refusing to be the slave of Mr. Roach: with the capture of the American slaver trading between the seat of government and New Orleans: together with an account of the capture of the Spanish schooner Amistad.

Printed for the publisher -

Description: -

-

Central America -- Description and travel

Veterans -- Uganda.

Charleston (S.C.) -- History -- Slave Insurrection, 1822.

Slave insurrections -- United States. late contemplated insurrection in Charleston, S.C. with the execution of thirty-six of the patriots - the death of William Irving, the provoked husband: and Joe Devaul, for refusing to be the slave of Mr. Roach: with the capture of the American slaver trading between the seat of government and New Orleans: together with an account of the capture of the Spanish schooner Amistad.

-late contemplated insurrection in Charleston, S.C. with the execution of thirty-six of the patriots - the death of William Irving, the provoked husband: and Joe Devaul, for refusing to be the slave of Mr. Roach: with the capture of the American slaver trading between the seat of government and New Orleans: together with an account of the capture of the Spanish schooner Amistad.

Notes: Signed: A colored American.

This edition was published in 1850

Filesize: 63.24 MB

Tags: #

..

..

..

...

..

..

Related Books

- AMERICAN PATCHWORK: APPALACHIAN JOURNEY
- Imago relationship therapy - an introduction to theory and practice
- Wo men de yi han lai zi yu xiang ai shi jian de cuo guo
- The 2006-2011 World Outlook for Screen Printing on Fabric Articles Excluding Apparel, Apparel Access
- Karel Chapek - kritiko-biograficheskii ocherk