The Crisis of Civilization

The statesmen, skeptics by profession, had never had a very lively faith in the principles of liberty and justice about which they had prated so much during the war; they believed in the superior rights of force, all the more strongly because they imagined that they possessed it; and because they were subjected, after victory, to the influence of the military element.

In the Old Testament, God creates Adam and Eve in his own image and creates other species for them.

The Crisis in Civilisation That Rabindranath Tagore Red

He was chums with G. Caliban and the Witch: Women, the Body and Primitive Accumulation. And what are to be the principles and the instruments of the international law of the future? But that was, again, a delusion.
