Midnight Castle Strategy Guide

Egyptians believed that the Nile River was the river way that was taken from life to death and then to enter the afterlife.

Palm

The headland that looked shadowy in the distance a couple of hours ago, is reached and passed.

Grade 5

Thus was it answered to them by the Oracle about this: and the Nile, when it is in flood, goes over not only the Delta but also of the land which is called Libyan and of that which is called Arabian sometimes as much as two days' journey on each side, and at times even more than this or at times less. It would have been well for us, however, if these had been the only objections which we had to refute.

Obelisks and Freemasonry

Two thousand miles up that great river lay the object of our effort. He then presents various offerings and recites certain prayers ; whereupon the goddess promises him length of days, everlasting renown, and other good things.
